

2020: Climb Above, Together

Like many organizations this past year, Angel Flight West was impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. But we rose above the many challenges and continued to provide services to people in need, including nearly 500 COVID-19 relief flights, with the help of our resilient donors, staff, and volunteers.

MISSION STORY OF 2020

Many thanks to Command Pilot Scott Gustafson of our Colorado Wing, who flew a COVID-19 relief cargo mission! He's shown here with another volunteer posing for a photo while loading his airplane. AFW is still working with our many relief organization partners to ensure that we're doing all we can during these challenging times.
